

Dear

Welcome to Independent Living Fund Scotland.

From the 1st of July 2015 ILF Scotland will be responsible for administering your independent living fund. Our new team have been working hard to ensure we are ready for this transition, and we hope to continue the excellent work of the UK ILF for all Scottish recipients of the fund.

In order to ensure a smooth transition, we will be continuing to use the same policies and procedures as the UK ILF. Please note, therefore, that your award will not change as a result of the transition, and will continue to be paid by ILF Scotland from July. Therefore you do not need to take any action at the moment.

I have enclosed a small card containing ILF Scotland's contact details for your information. I hope you will keep this card safe, as it is important to us that you are able to contact us at any time if you have any queries or concerns.

ILF Scotland is committed to working alongside disabled people and their organisations. We will soon be talking to these organisations about how we can best ensure disabled people can have a say in the running of our new organisation. As we develop this process of engagement, I hope to have the opportunity to meet as many of you as I possibly can.

In the meantime, welcome to ILF Scotland, and we very much look forward to continuing to support you with your independent living.

Yours sincerely,
